

Two Kish Bankers Inducted into Association's 40-Year Club

STATE COLLEGE, PA – April 27, 2018 – Mark Cvrkel, Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer, and Bill Yaudes, Vice President and Business Development Officer, both of Kish Bank, were recognized for serving 40 or more years in the banking industry at the Pennsylvania Bankers Association (PA Bankers) Group 5 and Group 6 meetings held earlier this month. The 40-Year Club consists of financial institution members of PA Bankers who have completed 40 or more years of service in Pennsylvania's banking industry.

Cvrkel has served the banking industry for 40 years. He joined Kish Bank in 2016, and is responsible for directing the Bank's financial management, accounting, and reporting functions, as well as selected risk management activities. He serves as a member of the North American Asset Liability Management Association, a select risk management organization with limited membership representing key financial institutions in the U.S. and Canada, and as a member of the Philadelphia chapter of the Financial Managers Society. Cvrkel holds a bachelor's degree in economics with an accounting concentration from the University of Pittsburgh, and is a graduate of the Graduate School of Banking at the University of Wisconsin, with a major in controllership/accounting.

Yaudes has also served the banking industry for 40 years, having joined Kish Bank in 2010 as Regional Market Manager for Huntingdon County. He currently focuses on building relationships with customers and businesses in the downtown State College area. Yaudes is a graduate of the Pennsylvania Bankers Association's Central Atlantic School of Commercial Lending at Bucknell University, the Commercial Lending School at the University of Virginia's Darden School of Business, and the Business Banker Development Institute. As a longtime member of Rotary Club and past member of multiple boards of directors, Yaudes values being involved in the communities he serves.
