

Herrmann Promoted to Senior Vice President at Kish Bank

STATE COLLEGE, PA – May 27, 2016 – Kish Bank has announced the promotion of Carol Herrmann to Senior Vice President, Administration and Communications. Her promotion is in recognition of the significant contributions she has made at Kish, notably her leadership, support of management activities, and advocacy for Kish in the community. Herrmann will continue to serve as CEO of Kish Travel.

Her career at Kish and in banking began in 2011 as Vice President for Administration. She currently serves on the Pink Zone Board and is a member of its Executive and Marketing and Communications Committees. Herrmann is also a member of the Task Force on Policing and Communities of Color jointly appointed by Penn State and the Borough of State College.

Herrmann earned her undergraduate degree from Bucknell University and her master's degree from Penn State. She lives in State College and has two grown children.
