

Christina Bagrosky Appointed CEO of Kish Travel

LEWISTOWN, PA – June 10, 2019 – William P. Hayes, Chairman and CEO of Kish Bancorp, Inc., parent company of Kish Travel, is pleased to announce the promotion of Christina Bagrosky, Kish Travel Director, to CEO of Kish Travel.

With over twenty years of management and customer service experience, Bagrosky oversees Kish Travel business operations and, along with the entire team, works diligently to understand, anticipate, and respond to clients' needs. She strives to ensure that clients receive exceptionally high-quality travel experiences.

"I am pleased to see Christina progress into a new and challenging role at Kish as CEO of Kish Travel," said Hayes. "This unit has exemplified a focus on creating an exceptional client experience and I am confident that her leadership will serve to continue elevating this focus as she did as a Branch Manager and Private Client Relationship Manager."

Bagrosky began her career at Kish in 2011, holding customer service roles at the Electric Avenue branch in Lewistown before being promoted to Assistant Branch Manager in 2015 and Branch Manager the following year. In 2017, she was promoted to Private Client Relationship Manager. In 2018, Bagrosky was promoted to Assistant Vice President and assumed the role of Kish Travel Director.

Active in the community, Bagrosky serves on the board of the Mifflin County Library and volunteers for the Lewistown Elementary Home and School Association and national Teach Children to Save Day. Bagrosky lives in Lewistown with her husband, Brett, and two sons, Sawyer and Wyatt.
