

Juniata College Professor Joins Kish Bank Regional Board

HUNTINGDON, PA – July 31, 2013 – Dominick F. Peruso, Jr. has been appointed to Kish Bank’s Huntingdon County Regional Board, according to William P. Hayes, CEO and Chairman. Peruso is Professor and Chair of the Department of Accounting, Business and Economics at Juniata College.

“Dr. Peruso brings a much valued perspective to our Huntingdon County Regional Board,” Hayes said. “Higher education is a significant sector in our markets and Juniata College represents a strong positive presence in the Huntingdon area.” Hayes said that Peruso’s academic focus on business and economics will be helpful to the Bank as it continues to grow. At Juniata College, in addition to his administrative and teaching responsibilities, Peruso oversees the Juniata Center for Entrepreneurial Leadership. The Center supports regional and student entrepreneurs.

Active in the community, Peruso participates in the Masonic Child Indemnification Program, performs in musical events to support non-profits including the Huntingdon Historical Society and others, supports the P.R.I.D.E. telethon, and has co-chaired the annual JC Blair Memorial Hospital benefit. A graduate of Saint Francis University, Peruso received his M.Ed. and Ph.D. from Penn State. He is a Certified Public Accountant and a Certified Management Accountant.

Hayes stated further, “Our Regional Boards are a critical link in our efforts to remain connected to and listening to our communities. They not only serve as a sounding board on our products and services, but also provide us with insight on growth and expansion opportunities.”

Kish Bank has $650 million in assets and 13 offices in Huntingdon, Mifflin, and Centre Counties. Business units include retail and business banking, investment management and trust, insurance, and travel.
