

Ed Friedman Appointed to Kish Bank Board

STATE COLLEGE, PA – April 25, 2014 – William P. Hayes, Chairman and CEO of Kish Bank and Kish Bancorp, has announced that Ed Friedman has been appointed to the Kish Bank Board of Directors. Friedman is the founder of the Friedman Real Estate Group, a company that specializes in residential and commercial development. Located in State College, the firm began in 1978 and currently owns and manages a wide variety of properties throughout the region.

“We are pleased to welcome Ed as a member of our Board,” Hayes said. “He has deep roots in central Pennsylvania and shares our commitment to the long-term future of the areas we serve.”

Active in the community, Mr. Friedman has participated on many boards and held leadership roles with organizations including the United Way and the Centre County Community Foundation, as well as volunteering his time to Penn State for major fundraising campaigns. With his wife, Charlene, Ed was the 2012 Honoree for the Renaissance Scholarship Fund, granted by Penn State for extraordinary service to Centre County and the University.

A native of State College, Friedman received a Bachelor of Science Degree in Business Administration from Ohio State University, a Master of Business Administration Degree from San Francisco State University, a master’s degree in Hotel, Restaurant and Institutional Management from Penn State, and is an honors graduate of the University of San Francisco School of Law.

“I am pleased to be a part of a bank that focuses on its customers and helping local communities,” Friedman said, adding, “I look forward to working with the Kish Bank team to help the company achieve its goals.”

Ed lives on a farm in Boalsburg with his wife, Charlene, three golden retrievers and a herd of fifty eight alpacas. In their spare time, they enjoy collecting antique cars, playing golf, tennis and fly-fishing.
