

George Woskob Appointed to Kish Bancorp Board

STATE COLLEGE, PA – October 16, 2017 – William P. Hayes, Chairman, President and CEO of Kish Bank and Kish Bancorp, has announced that George V. Woskob has been appointed to the Kish Bank and Kish Bancorp Boards of Directors. Woskob is the founder and owner of GN Associates, a real estate development and management firm in State College, PA. With 40 years of experience as a real estate entrepreneur, he and his wife, Nina, built a portfolio of eight multi-unit properties with two shared office facilities, downtown retail spaces, art galleries, and Designers Studios, a full service furnishing and accessory store.

“The engagement and perspectives of our Board members have been central to Kish’s success and growth over the years, so we are especially pleased to welcome George to the team,” Hayes said. “As a native of State College, where he and Nina raised their own family, he is highly knowledgeable of the region and committed to the future of central Pennsylvania. He also believes in the expanding role Kish Bank and its affiliates can play in support of a dynamic and growing local economy,” Hayes said. “Not only have he and his family built successful businesses in the region, they also have invested in community organizations and institutions, as well as the arts and Penn State University.”

Woskob currently serves as a director of AW & Sons, a family business consisting of five State College high rise apartment buildings and an industrial park. His interests include supporting an international Ukrainian education program through Penn State University and the Woskob Family Foundation. He has also been involved in supporting State College’s Downtown Improvement District.

“It has been a pleasure to watch Kish Bank emerge as a banking leader in State College and observe Kish’s support of economic development, the arts, downtown State College, and so many community organizations,” Woskob said. “I have admired Kish Bank’s approach to community engagement and respect the team of professionals Kish has assembled. I look forward to working with my colleagues on the Board to continue the Corporation’s growth trajectory in this region where we are all so fortunate to live and work,” Woskob said.

Woskob graduated from Penn State University’s Smeal College of Business in 1976 with a B.S. in Business Administration and Management. He and his wife, Nina, live in State College and have three grown children.
