

McAdoo Appointed Vice President at Kish Bank

REEDSVILLE, PA – January 18, 2017 – Kish Bank has announced the appointment of Virginia McAdoo to Vice President, Lending Services Manager. McAdoo supports the Bank’s mortgage loan operations team and is located at its Operations Center in Reedsville.

McAdoo comes to Kish with over thirty years of banking experience. Prior to joining Kish, she was employed with BB&T in State College as a Market Leader for Centre County. She was a Retail Director at National Penn Bank before its merger with BB&T, and a Director of Retail Support and a Branch Manager at Nittany Bank before its acquisition by National Penn.

She attended Millersville University and Penn State University. Active in the community, McAdoo is a Board Member for the Community Help Centre in State College, Assistant Treasurer and Board Member for the Schlow Library Foundation, and Chair of the Centre County United Way Funds Distribution Panel. She currently resides in State College with her husband, Thomas.
