

Hayes and Weikel Promoted to Senior Vice Presidents at Kish Bank

STATE COLLEGE, PA – April 1, 2014 – William P. Hayes, Chairman and CEO of Kish Bank, announced today that Gregory Hayes and Debra Weikel have been promoted to the positions of Senior Vice President, Systems and Client Solutions and Senior Vice President, Loan Administration, respectively. The promotions are part of a new structural alignment at Kish designed to focus on proactive centralized support of the Bank’s sales and service functions, coupled with a centralized focus on providing direct client solutions in concert with client needs.

“Our business model is sharply focused on providing exceptional service to our clients and these two experienced leaders at Kish have been charged with taking that differentiating factor to the next level for us,” Hayes said. Both executives report directly to Kish’s President and Chief Operating Officer, J. Bradley Scovill.

Gregory Hayes joined Kish Bank in 2006, leaving a career as an engineer for Merck Pharmaceuticals to return to his home community in central Pennsylvania. Since joining Kish, he has worked as a management trainee, teller, branch manager, retail and commercial lender, and most recently, Vice President, Lending Services. In addition, Gregory Hayes has been very active in the community, having served as President of the Board of Directors of Habitat for Humanity of Greater Centre County; Treasurer and member of the Board of Directors for Friends of the Palmer Museum of Art; and Treasurer and past President of the Board of Managers for the State College Branch of the YMCA of Centre County. He received the Centre County Community Foundation’s “Future of the Foundation Award” for his extraordinary commitment to the community in 2011. He and his wife, Meghan, live in State College and are the parents of a young son.

Weikel joined Kish Bank in 1997 as Branch Manager at the Bank’s Electric Avenue branch, where she also originated mortgages. In 2003, she was promoted to Mortgage Underwriting Manager. She was promoted to Vice President, Mortgage Underwriting in 2009, and Vice President, Loan Operations Director in 2013. She is actively engaged in the community through the Kish Bank’s many community support programs. She and her husband, Jeff, live in Reedsville. They are the parents of three adult children and have two granddaughters.
