

Felmlee Joins Kish Bank Regional Board

LEWISTOWN, PA – August 5, 2013 – James W. Felmlee has been appointed to Kish Bank’s Mifflin County Regional Board, according to William P. Hayes, CEO and Chairman of Kish Bank.

Felmlee, who from 1995 to 2013 served as a member and, later, president of the Lewistown Borough Council, owns Complete Flooring Solutions in Lewistown. He is a recipient of the 2013 Governor’s Local Government Award. Felmlee also is past president of the Pennsylvania State Borough’s Association, former Trustee of the Pennsylvania Local Government Investment Trust, and former member of the Marcellus Shale Advisory Commission for the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

“We are excited to be welcoming Jim to Kish Bank’s Mifflin County Regional Board,” Hayes said. “He brings a wealth of experience in business, government, and economic development, and we appreciate that he is willing to devote his time and energy to the advancement of Kish Bank.”

Hayes explained that Kish Bank’s Regional Boards “are a critical link in our efforts to remain connected to and listening to our communities. They not only serve as a sounding board on our products and services, but also provide us with insight on growth and expansion opportunities, all critical to a community bank sharply focused on its customers and communities.”

Felmlee, a veteran of the United States Air Force, is a graduate of the Penn State Management Development Program. He lives in Lewistown with his wife, Sherry.

Kish Bank has $650 million in assets and 13 offices in Mifflin, Huntingdon, and Centre Counties. Business units include retail and business banking, investment management and trust, insurance, and travel.
