

James Troha Appointed to Kish Bank's Huntingdon County Regional Board

HUNTINGDON, PA – September 4, 2015 – William P. Hayes, Chairman, President and CEO of Kish Bank and Kish Bancorp, has announced that James A. Troha, President of Juniata College, has been appointed to the Bank's Huntingdon County Regional Board. Troha was named the 12th president of Juniata College in 2012, having come to the college from Heidelberg University, where he led the institution's fundraising, marketing and university relations programs and launched Heidelberg's Academic Comprehensive Campaign for Excellence, the first of its kind at that university.

"We are pleased to welcome Jim Troha to our Huntingdon County Regional Board," Hayes said. "In the short time that he has been in Huntingdon, he has demonstrated a commitment to community engagement, a core value at Kish Bank. Jim understands the positive difference a locally focused, client centric bank, with all of the services of larger institutions, has on communities. We look forward to working with him to advance our mission and grow the Kish franchise."

Troha and his wife, Jennifer, co-chair the Huntingdon County United Way campaign for 2015-2016. President Troha is a member of the Executive Committee of the Huntingdon County Chamber of Commerce, as well as a member of the J.C. Blair Memorial Hospital Board of Directors.

"Kish Bank is an important presence in Huntingdon and neighboring communities in the central Pennsylvania region," Troha said. "I look forward to engaging with a long-standing, well respected community bank that continues to make a positive difference for people in this part of Pennsylvania."

A native of Cleveland, Ohio, Troha earned a bachelor's degree in criminal justice in 1991, a master's degree in counseling in 1993, both from Edinboro University, and a doctorate in educational policy and leadership in 2005 from the University of Kansas.
