

Kish Bancorp, Inc. Announces Two-for-One Stock Split

STATE COLLEGE, PA – May 10, 2013 – William P. Hayes Chairman, President, and CEO of Kish Bancorp, Inc., today announced that the Corporation’s Board of Directors has approved a two-for-one split of the company's common stock in the form of a 100% stock dividend. “The stock split was declared in recognition of the prospects for future growth and the company's strong underlying financial fundamentals,” Hayes said, adding that, by doubling the amount of shares outstanding, “the split will make a share of Kish common stock more affordable to a broader range of potential investors and increase liquidity in the trading of Kish Bancorp shares.”

As a result of the stock split, each shareholder of record will receive one additional share of common stock for each share held by the shareholder on the record date of May 20, 2013. Shareholders will receive written confirmation of the issuance of the additional shares together with more detailed information regarding the split via mail shortly after the distribution date of May 27, 2013.
