

Kish Bank Advances and Hires to Key Positions

STATE COLLEGE, PA – August 16, 2018 – Kish Bank has announced the appointment of three senior managers to key leadership roles. Holly Johnson has been promoted to Vice President, State College Market Manager, and Wendy Strohecker has been promoted to Vice President, Bank Operations Manager. Garen Jenco has joined Kish Bank as Vice President, Market Research and Analytics Manager.

Holly Johnson

Wendy Strohecker

Garen Jenco

Johnson began her Kish Bank career in 2016 as Branch Manager of the North Atherton branch, and quickly demonstrated management and leadership capabilities through a focus on excellent service delivery and team building and development. In her expanded role as Vice President and Market Manager, Johnson will focus on the sales and service quality culture across all of Kish Bank's State College Market branches to ensure consistent delivery of the Kish experience to customers. Additionally, she will continue to oversee the North and South Atherton branches and Expect More store in downtown State College.

Strohecker, who is located at Kish Bank's Reedsville Technology and Operations Center, has held multiple management-level roles within the organization since beginning her career at Kish in 2004. She was appointed Assistant Vice President in 2014, and accepted the role of Bank Operations Manager in 2017.

Jenco, who previously worked at PNC Bank in Pittsburgh as Vice President, Insight & Market Dynamics Research Manager, brings more than 10 years of experience in Marketing and Market Research to Kish Bank. In his role as Vice President, Market Research and Analytics Manager, Jenco will manage the use of market research and analytics to build and refine products and identify delivery channels for the future of Kish Bank and its customers. A State College area native and Penn State graduate, Jenco will help to elevate the company's focus on client satisfaction and fulfillment.
