

Kristie McKnight Promoted to Vice President

STATE COLLEGE, PA – August 16, 2016 – Kish Bank has announced the promotion of Kristie McKnight, Commercial Relationship Manager, from Assistant Vice President to Vice President.

McKnight's career at Kish began in October 2004 as a Business Banking Assistant. She was promoted to Business Banking Specialist at the Lewistown Financial Center in 2005, and then entered the Business Banker Trainee program in 2009. McKnight was promoted to Commercial Relationship Manager in Kish's Centre County market in 2013, and was appointed Assistant Vice President in 2015.

McKnight is a graduate of Penn State University's Smeal College of Business with a degree in Economics. She completed the Pennsylvania Bankers Association school of Banking, School of Commercial Lending, and Advanced School of Commercial Lending, and also graduated with the 2015 class of Leadership Centre County. She resides in Reedsville with her husband, Robert, and their two sons.
