

Former Investment Manager Joins Kish Boards

STATE COLLEGE—September 27, 2012—Spyros Degleris, of State College, has been appointed by the Board of Directors as a member of the Kish Bank and Kish Bancorp boards. Degleris, 49, had previously retired as a fixed income investment manager.

“We are very pleased to welcome Mr. Degleris to our Boards,” Kish Chairman, President and CEO William P. Hayes said. “Spyros enjoyed a remarkable career as an investment manager and brings us broad experience and expertise in the financial services industry. He is a tremendous resource for the Corporation as Kish continues to meet the economic and regulatory challenges facing both our industry and the communities we serve.”

Mr. Degleris, who moved to State College from Athens, Greece at the age of four, is a graduate of the State College Area High School and the Pennsylvania State University, where he earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Finance. He spent nearly 20 years in various investment management positions, most recently as Executive Director and Portfolio Manager at Rabobank Nederland, a Global Banking Institution with assets of $800 billion. At Rabobank, Mr. Degleris managed over $9.5 billion in fixed income securities. Prior to working at Rabobank, Mr. Degleris was a fixed income trader at M&T Bank in New York City. He represented the Treasury Division on the bank’s Asset Liability Committee. He also served as a member of M&T’s due diligence team, concentrating on investment securities portfolios of institutions that were prospective acquisitions, completing 22 separate mergers as M&T Bank grew from a $3 billion regional bank to a $45 billion bank with a national footprint in just 10 years.

Mr. Degleris, an active supporter of the local community, serves as Chairman of the Board of Easter Seals of Central Pennsylvania. He also serves on the boards of the Bob Perks Cancer Fund and the Nittany Track and Field Club. As a member of the Kish boards, Mr. Degleris is an active supporter of the Company through referrals of prospective customers and investors.

He resides in State College with his wife, Astrid, and their two sons, Anthony and Evan.
