

Kish Bank Promotes Four Associates

REEDSVILLE, PA – May 22, 2014 – Kish Bank has announced the promotion of four team members to officer roles: Kayelene Sunderland, Assistant Vice President and Wealth Management/Trust Administrator, to Vice President; Kim Bubb, Assistant Vice President and Services and System Manager, to Vice President; Mary Dietz, Collections Manager, to Assistant Vice President, Collections, Commercial Documentation and Review Manager; and Jason Cunningham, Branch Manager, to Assistant Vice President.

Kayelene Sunderland's career at Kish began in June 1997 as a Loan Operations Specialist, and shortly after as an Administrative Secretary/Receptionist, which allowed her to explore the areas of trust, insurance, and investments. After successfully passing licensing exams, Kayelene was promoted to Investment Sales Assistant. In 2005, she was appointed as Assistant Vice President and Assistant Investment Services Manager. Due to Kayelene's knowledge of investments and trust, she transitioned to Assistant Vice President and Trust Officer in 2009, and to Wealth Management/Trust Administrator in 2011.

Kim Bubb's career at Kish started in 2004 as a Customer Service Teller. She was promoted to Communications Specialist and Event Coordinator in June 2005, where she utilized her Communication and Marketing emphasis Bachelor's degree from Juniata College. Subsequently, she was promoted to Assistant Marketing Manager in 2007. In 2008 Kim accepted the position of Business Services Support Manager, with the primary responsibility of supporting and developing the merchant services program. In 2010 her role was further defined as Product Development Manager, when she was also appointed Assistant Vice President. Her current role as Services and Systems Manager allows Kim and her team to support the broader function of Client Systems and Solutions.

Mary Dietz joined Kish in November 2009 as the Collections Manager in the Loan Operations department. Prior to joining Kish, she was the Collections Manager at Penn Credit Corp. in State College, and the Collection Attorney with Credit Plus Solutions Group, Inc. out of Harrisburg. Mary holds a Bachelor's degree from Penn State in the Administration of Justice, a Litigation Management Certificate from the Institute for Paralegal Training, and a Juris Doctor from Capital University Law School.
