

Susan Kramer Joins Kish Bank's Benefit Advisory Division

STATE COLLEGE, PA – August 1, 2019 – Gregory T. Hayes, President and COO of Kish Bank, and Jeffrey A. Gum, Vice President and Managing Director of Kish Bank's benefit advisory division, Kish Benefits Consulting (KBC), have announced that Susan Kramer, formerly of USI Insurance Services/Hartman Employee Benefits, has joined KBC.

In her new role as Account Executive at KBC, Kramer will be responsible for supporting their existing clients in the Centre region. She is located at Kish Bank's State College North Atherton office, but will also work with employers in Mifflin, Huntingdon, and Juniata counties. Kramer will also collaborate with members of Kish Bank's Business Services team, which includes banking, lending, insurance, benefits consulting, and wealth management solutions that Kish provides across the full range of financial needs to its business clients.

Gum stated, "We are delighted to welcome Susan to Kish Benefits Consulting. Her customer service experience and compliance expertise will bring immediate benefits to our clients, as well as Kish Bank business customers. Susan's commitment to high-level service and her exceptional relationship development skills will enhance our ability to deliver quality and timely fringe benefit resources to employers in the Centre region."

A recent empty-nester, Kramer resides in Bellefonte with her husband.

About Kish Benefits Consulting

Kish Benefits Consulting is an employee benefits consulting practice that provides employee benefits advisory and brokerage services to small and mid-size companies across Pennsylvania and the mid-Atlantic region, including healthcare and benefits plan design, employee communication and education, regulatory compliance, wellness planning, and cost containment solutions. For additional information, please visit Kish Benefits Consulting online at www.worksitebenefits.com.