

White Promoted at Kish Bank

REEDSVILLE, PA – May 27, 2016 – Kish Bank has announced the promotion of Suzanne White to Senior Vice President, Human Resources and Organizational Development.

White's promotion allows for a greater scope of responsibility in organizational and leadership development with oversight of the HR function for Kish. In this role, her background in HR, training, and development, will benefit and support senior managers in developing management and leadership talent across the organization.

White began her career at Kish in 2007 as Vice President and Human Resources Manager. Prior to joining Kish, she was Vice President of Human Resources at Allensville Planing Mill, and Human Resources and Training Manager at Standard Steel.

A Penn State graduate, with a bachelor's degree in Human Development, White returned as an adult learner and earned her master's degree from Penn State in Training and Organizational Development. She serves on the PA Bankers Professional Development Committee, the United Way of Mifflin-Juniata Board of Directors, and is past president of NuVisions, Inc.

She and her husband, John, live in Lewistown and have five grown children.
