

Minichiello to Lead Kish Bank's Centre County Market

STATE COLLEGE, PA – July 14, 2015 – Kish Bank has announced the appointment of Thomas Minichiello as Vice President and Regional Market Manager for Kish Bank's Centre County market. Minichiello has assumed the direct reporting relationships of the Centre County branch managers and serves as a member of Kish Bank's Senior Executive Team. He is located at the Kish Bank Financial Center in State College.

Minichiello comes to Kish with over twenty years of retail banking, consumer lending, and branch management experience. Most recently, he served at Fulton Bank in State College as Vice President and Group Manager of four branch offices in Centre, Lycoming, and Union Counties.

Minichiello's career began at Corning Federal Credit Union in Corning, New York and continued in State College as a Loan Officer and Branch Manager for the credit union. He also worked at SPE Federal Credit Union as the General Manager, at M&T Bank as Vice President and Branch Manager, and at Sovereign Bank as a Community Banking Officer.

He and his wife, Sandy, reside in State College and have three adult children.
