

Minichiello Promoted to Head of Retail Banking at Kish Bank

STATE COLLEGE, PA – July 27, 2017 – Kish Bank has announced the promotion of Thomas Minichiello to Senior Vice President and Head of Retail Banking. With this promotion, Minichiello will assume overall responsibility for retail banking at Kish Bank, including product development, retail lending, branch management, and regional sales coordination.

Minichiello has 26 years of retail banking experience. His banking career began at Corning Federal Credit Union in Corning, New York and continued in State College as a Loan Officer and Branch Manager for the credit union. He served as Vice President for both M&T Bank and Fulton Bank prior to joining Kish in 2015 as Vice President and Regional Market Manager for the Bank's Centre County market.

He has supported the mission of Kish Bank through his vision for the transformation of the Bank's branches from transaction centers to customer engagement centers. Minichiello has also been instrumental in growing the strong team in Centre County.

He and his wife, Sandy, reside in State College and have three adult children.
